FABENART

INSPIRED BY LOVE

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Benjamin Fabris (Faben) is a multimedia artist working in painting, sculpture, and digital art, drawing inspiration from the graffiti and street art scene. He is a member of the collectives Hors Normes and Los Gringos. Faben defines himself as an activist for "Love in its broadest sense," constantly questioning its place in modern society. For him, art, like love, must be spontaneous and magical—it must capture instant emotions and overturn reality. The character he created, Mr.LOVER, embodies this philosophy, striving to restore sharing, exchange, and love in every person, moment, and action. Faben believes in the principle: "doing with Love, doing out of Love, and doing for Love."

Each of his creations bursts with joy and color, celebrating the positive aspects of life in all its forms. His work has been exhibited alongside Master Glassmaker Ada Lournant at On the Path of the Nice School – Jean Ferrero Selection, and alongside prominent artists such as Arman, César, Sosno, and Moya. His art has also been shown at MAMAC in Nice, the Art Gallery Show in Monaco, and internationally in Vienna, Austria, spreading love in Monaco, Italy, Denmark, Thailand, Malaysia and beyond—because love knows no borders.

Step into the world of Mr.LOVER: a universe where love and art coexist, timeless and universal.
